

SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS RELATING TO GENERAL MEETING

The shareholders have the following rights in respect of participating and voting in general meetings of the Company:

- To attend or appoint proxy / proxies to attend, speak and vote at all general meetings on behalf on the shareholder.
- To requisite the Company to convene a general meeting.
- To place items on the general meeting agenda.
- To appoint up to two (2) proxies when the shareholder is unable to attend the general meeting.
- For a corporate shareholder, to attend the general meeting through its corporate representative.
- To demand for poll voting on any resolution at general meetings in manner prescribed in the Articles of Association of the Company.
- To receive audited financial statements / annual report / circular together with notice of the annual general meeting.
- To receive all notices of general meetings.

In the event that shares are held by a nominee, it is the nominee's name that appears on the register of members and therefore the Company's dealings, such as the sending of general meeting notices and circulars, are with the nominee as the registered shareholder. The beneficial owners should liaise with their respective nominees to provide them with the necessary information.